

Harvey Allan, M. D.; Joseph Miles, M. D.,
and Charles Steven, M. D.

Prominent in Heber City as well as Idaho Falls, Idaho, where he has lived since 1920, Dr. Henry Ray Hatch has held important positions throughout his life. He has pursued an active medical career, but has also found time to serve one term as mayor of Heber, was second counselor to President Joseph R. Murdock in the Wasatch Stake Presidency, served on the Wasatch Stake high council, was president of the North Idaho Falls Stake, first president of the Idaho Falls Temple Mission and Bureau of Information, and patriarch of the North Idaho Falls Stake.

He also served as a first lieutenant in the Army Medical Corps during World War I. He attended public schools in Heber and the University of Utah, where he graduated in 1908. He then entered Rush Medical College in Chicago and graduated in 1910. He was baptized a member of the Church while in Chicago, on October 28, 1909. Returning to Heber, he began practicing in 1910 and continued until 1919, when he moved to Idaho Falls. With his sons, who are doctors, he has operated the Hatch Clinic in Idaho Falls. He is a fellow of the American College of Surgeons and has achieved many professional honors.

Mary L. Hatch lived most of her young life in Salt Lake City, where she attended the University of Utah. She also attended the Illinois School of Pharmacy and the Art Institute of Chicago. She served in the Wasatch Stake Primary and YLMIA and was president of the Idaho Falls Stake MIA. She was the first president of the North Idaho Falls Stake Relief Society and was a Sunday School teacher many years. Her husband and five sons credit her with much of their success.

DR. H. RAY AND MARY LEONA MILES HATCH

Henry Ray Hatch was born April 20, 1886, in Ashley, Utah, son of Abram Chase and Maria Luke Hatch. He married Mary Leona Miles on June 4, 1908. She was born January 2, 1889, in Payson. Parents of five sons, William Ray, agricultural attache to the embassy at Iran; John Sumner, M. D.;

ROY AND IMOGENE W. HATCH

Roy Hatch was born in Heber, December 14, 1884, son of Joseph and Jane Clyde Hatch. He married Imogene Wherritt on January 1, 1912, in Kansas City. She was born May 1, 1885, and died in August of 1958. They were the parents of one son, Roy Clay Hatch. Mr. Hatch died in November, 1958.

Prominent mining engineer, Roy Hatch spent most of his adult life working for Kennecott Copper Corporation. He was superintendent of mills in Arizona and Alaska and also at the Arthur and Magna plants in Utah. In later years he was chairman of the labor relations board and also assistant to the managing director of the Utah Copper Division of Kennecott.

VERMONT HATCH

Vermont "Monty" Hatch, son of President Abram Hatch and Ruth Woolley Hatch, was born in Heber on May 14, 1893. He died in New York City on April 4, 1959. He married Nita Cowlishaw.

Vermont Hatch distinguished himself as a lawyer of international fame. He graduated from Harvard university in 1913 and then from Columbia University Law School in 1916. He joined White & Case and became a partner in 1925, and then managed the Paris office in 1930-31. In 1952 he was appointed alumni trustee of Columbia University and in 1958 was appointed general counsel of the University. He died on the Columbia campus while attending a meeting. He was a fellow of the American Bar Association, a member of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, the Utah State Bar Association, the Orange County Bar Association, the New York County Lawyers' Association and the American Judicature Society and the American Law Institute. He was also a director of the Alpha Portland Cement Company and the Unity Fire and General Insurance Company.

CARL J. E. HERTELL

Born in Malmo, Sweden, on August 26, 1876, Carl J. E. Hertell came to America in 1893. He married Amelia Comer of Lehi, Utah, in 1897. To them were born three living in Heber: Maron R., Bernell R., Kent R. and Jay Lucas. The daughter, Nila, lives in Modesto, California.

In 1917, Mr. Hiatt came to Heber from Springville to manage the Palace Drug Store. This store was owned by Edwin D. Hatch, Emil Kohler, Andrew Murdock, Fred Giles and others. Later he became the owner of this store. In a few years the store building was purchased from the Hatch estate. It was remodeled, new stock and fixtures